

Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States of America,
To all to whom these presents shall come greeting.

Whereas a Treaty was held on the 4th day of July Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and five under the authority of the United States with the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors of the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chippawa, Munsee and Delaware, Shawanee and Pottawatima Nations and Tribes of Indians at Fort Industry on the Miami of the Lake, in the presence of Charles Smith the Commissioner of the United States appointed to hold the same the following agreement was made between the said Nations and Tribes of Indians and the agents of the Land Companies herein after mentioned.

A Treaty between the United States of America, and the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors, of the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chippawa, Munsee and Delaware, Shawanee and Pottawatima Nations, holden at Fort Industry on the Miami of the Lake, on the fourth day of July Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and five.

Whereas Thomas Jefferson President of the United States, did appoint Charles Smith Esquire a Commissioner, to hold a Treaty with said Indian Nations, for the purpose of enabling the Agents of the Connecticut Reserve, to negotiate and conclude a cession of their Lands. And Whereas the Company incorporated by the name of "The Proprietors of the half Million Acres of Land lying south of Lake Erie called superfluous Land", are the owners and proprietors of one half Million acres of Land, part of said Connecticut Reserve lying on the west end thereof and south of the shore of Lake Erie. And Whereas The Connecticut Land Company, so called, are the owners and proprietors of the remaining part of said Reserve, lying west of the River Cayahoga. And Whereas Henry Champion Esquire Agent of the said Connecticut Land Company, and Amos Mills Esquire agent of the Directors of the Company incorporated by the name of the proprietors of the half Million Acres of Land lying south of Lake Erie called superfluous Land", were both duly authorized and empowered, by their respective Companies and the Directors thereof, to treat for the cession and purchase of said Connecticut Reserve.

Now know all Men, by these presents, That we the Sachems, Chiefs, and Warriors of the Nations aforesaid, for the consideration of Eighteen thousand nine hundred sixteen dollars 67/100, received of the companies aforesaid, by the hands of their respective Agents, to our full satisfaction have ceded, remised, released, and quiteclaimed, and by these presents do cede, remise, release and forever quiteclaim, to the Companies aforesaid, and the individuals composing the same, and their heirs and assigns, forever, all the interest, right, title and claim of title of said Indian Nations respectively, of, in, and to, all the Lands of said Companies, lying west of the River Cayahoga and the portage between that and the Tuscarawa branch of Muskingum, north of the northernmost part of the forty first degree of North Latitude, east of a line agreed and designated in a Treaty between the United States, and said Indian Nations, bearing even date herewith, being a line north and south, one hundred and twenty miles due west of the west line of the State of Pennsylvania, and south of the northernmost part of the forty second degree and two minutes North Latitude for them the said Companies respectively, to have, hold, occupy, peacefully possess and enjoy, the granted and quiteclaimed premises forever free, and clear of all let, hindrance or molestation whatsoever, so that, said Nations and neither of them, the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors thereof, and neither of them, or any of the posterity of said Nations respectively, shall ever hereafter make any claim, to the quiteclaimed premises or any part thereof, but that from said Nations, the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors thereof, and the posterity of said Nations shall be forever barred.

In Witness whereof the Commissioner of the United States, the Agent of the Companies aforesaid, and the Sachems, Chiefs and Warriors of the respective Indian Nations aforesaid, have hereunto interchangeably fixed their seals and set their names.
